

Nuts and bolts in practice – transcript of video

Speaker 1

So our Elders have a lot of practical skills and deal with a lot of the practical issues in the church. And some of us have less practical skills but perhaps bring in the more commercial or legal requirements that we're needing to deal with these days. We're very hands on and doing things as an Eldership as well as the pastoral and spiritual work that we that we support through the church.