

What first drew you to your vocation?
- when did you decide to become or do your calling?
- when did you know that this was your calling?

“Vocation is the place where our deep gladness meets the world's deep need.”
Frederick Buechner

What puts you off your calling?
- have you ever felt like giving up

What are or do you feel called to?
a role, a ministry,
a gifting,
a way of being,
or something else?

How do you hear God and know God's calling?
...in big things, in small things, about work, about relationships, alone, with others

What do you like and enjoy about your calling?
- when does it feel worthwhile?
- what are your strengths, gifts, talents, preferred ways of working or being?

Look forward
- what is your sense of direction, sense of purpose

How do you think that your calling is seen by others?
- by family & friends, your church, your colleagues by yourself, by God

Look back
- your story so far... can you see your calling unfolding?

Who (or what) do you see yourself
• as working for
• as serving
• as accountable to

What keeps you going in your calling?
- what sustains you personally

How much is your calling for you
• a job
• a ministry
• a vocation
• something else
