Where are the young people?

Here are some links to help you engage further with young people:

- 📍 I work with children and young people in a Quaker setting... | Quakers in Britain.
- 📍 Children & young people's work advocates | Quakers in Britain.
- 📍 Families, children & young people - United Reformed Church.
- 📍 How to contact local development workers for Quaker meetings.
- 📍 How to contact your URC Synod lead for children's and youth work.
- 📍 The Gift - United Reformed Church
Resource for grandparents and Godparents and all who hold particular children and young people in their heart – copies can be ordered as gifts here.
- 📍 Where are the children? - United Reformed Church
Resource for churches to consider how to seek, pray for and serve children – with many ideas that could be transferred to thinking about young people.
- 📍 Children and Youth Friendly Church Scheme - United Reformed Church
A supported reflective process towards recognition as a Children and Youth Friendly Church – you don't need to currently have children and young people.
- 📍 Youthscape | Youthscape – helpful resources and research.
- 📍 Youthscape Essentials | Youthscape – 10 session training course for young workers – available for free through the URC – contact children.you@urc.org.uk or your Synod lead for children's and youth work.
- 📍 Introduction to thinking about youth work outside your building: Stepping Out – video of online training session with Tim Evans, including three interviews with people doing detached youth work.
- 📍 Supporting you – Frontier Youth Trust \(fyt.org.uk\) a movement journeying with young people on the margins of church and society. Find resources, training, and people to travel with – and a long track record of equipping people who care about young people.
